What's going on this week?

A Spanish triathlete has received praise from all around the world for letting his opponent win third place in a race after he took a wrong turn. Diego Mentriga allowed Britain's James Teagle to finish ahead of him in the Santander Triathlon, after he made the wrong turn towards spectators less than 100 metres from the finish line. Teagle threw his hands in the air in agony as Mentriga overtook him. Realising his opponent's error, the 21-year-old slowed down and stopped short of the finish line. Teagle finished third by a fraction of a second.

Things to talk about at home…
- Can you remember a time you've taken part in a competition or sports event? What was it? How did you feel before the event? After the event?
- Have you ever won or lost a competition or event that was important to you? How did you feel?
